Copy letter

10.7.54

S.N.

J. Gharan
Fairfield
Woodlands.
Bangalore

Dear Mr Gharan.

My Wife, who had a cold for a couple of days, had fever since this morning and I feel it may be better if your visit tomorrow be postponed till next Sunday.

As regards your kind invitation for lunch on the 17th. We are very glad to accept it. and I am sure my wife will be quite well by then.

108

We are very sorry that your visit to which we both looked forward to, be better changed, but we shall now look forward to seeing you Saturday next for lunch.

With our kind regards

Yours very sincerely

E. Kennedy