My Dear Friend,

I am returning to you herewith the poems you asked for. I am very sorry that owing to the present conditions it is impossible to make good use of them.

With all best wishes to Mrs Joshi and yourself very sincerely

Dear Mr Joshi,

I was very glad to hear of your proposed Exhibition at Delhi. It was a great pleasure to see your paintings at Udaipur and your larger compositions of the Bhil Dances which I saw on the Wall of the Vidya Bhawan have especially impressed me. This Life of Rajputana which is so picturesque and Vital should be made known to ~~the~~ people and it is a significant contribution to our modern painting.

I hope you shall soon have an Exhibition of your work in the larger Cities Would all the success you roughly deserve

Would all best wishes
Yours very sincerely.
