Letter To Crane

Dear Mr Crane

~~Many thanks for the~~ Oct 12 1937

Many thanks for the ~~I wish to acknowledge the check~~ of $5.00 which you ~~[illegible]~~ England on your last letter. Hopkins & Edwards Library Otarang has been credited with the other sum of $5000. ~~[illegible]~~
The $500 has been applied toward the purchase of books. ——

~~Really I~~
~~I am very happy Dear Mr Crane~~
~~to have the pictures for you.~~ and I wish to add the

I greatly value Dear Mr. Crane the good words you wrote about my art and I am very happy to have Rhythm Jubrand for you. I cannot think of better hands for the pictures to be in and I hope you will like it.—

It has been completed save for a few details. And will be ready for despatch soon.

Please remember me, best regards to Mrs Crane & John

With all best wishes to you

My cordial yours

Lee Porter Jones.

Dear Mr Crane,

~~Pay the fifty etc~~

Pay them for your bills and ~~[illegible]~~ draft for £500. We were all very happy to hear that you were well and were contemplating a trip to Egypt.

Unfortunately Mother has not been well for some time already and has caused us a great deal of anxiety & worries as. Naturally the news from N.Y. are not very cheerful for the time being and all this ~~has had an effect~~. Forgetting only the general tension in the world has its effect.

The world has changed and it seems before long many more momentous changes are indicated.

For myself I have recently returned from a trip to the Mountains, the highest altitudes where I went to paint some of the sacred peaks despite of the intense cold and snow it was well worth it and gave me an abundance of material. The scenery and panorama is remarkable and worth all the trouble