Dear Mr. Svetoslav Roerich,

Kulu 1
4/9/47.

I hope you have duly received my chit of day before yesterday sent through a man of Naggar who met me on my way to Kulu. The Military has not yet arrived, although an additional force of 12 or 13 Police constables has arrived.

2. I have sent a special messenger by lorry to Mandi to deliver your letter yesterday morning. He has not yet returned to Kulu. As soon as he arrives back I hope to visit Naggar and would see you.

3. I learn that all is quiet at Naggar & its suburbs now.

Rest in person. With profound respects to you all,

Yours sincerely,
Chet Ram

Herewith kindly find the acknowledgment on receipt of your letter by the Private Secy. to H.H. Raja of Mandi. The messenger says he personally handed over the letter to H.H. the Raja of Mandi. H.H. said he would reply to the contents when he finds time.

~~It is a pity, Mandi might~~ ~~work itself with~~

Owing to some unavoidable circumstances I may not be able to visit Naggar within a week or so.

I hope all is o.k. now.

With respects,

Yours truly,
Chet Ram
