Nicholas Roerich Museum
New York

Dear Mrs. Yussupoff,

I appreciate very much the excellent activities of the Roerich Museum and your personal attentions with all the correspondence I am receiving as a member.

The Association for "Safeguard of Russian Cultural Values" is preparing an extensive "Golden Book" of the Russian emigration, relating their achievements, all over the world and their influence on the world's Culture. One of the most prominent personalities is without question Nicholas Roerich. I should like to see his activities and life appropriately mentioned in our edition. But where could I obtain a most extensive and better information if not from the Association honouring his name?

May I kindly ask you to help us in our formidable task and furnish us all the matters you could about Nicholas Roerich's life and activities as a painter, as a writer, as a philosopher and also his prominent public and social activities in the United States. A complete biography of this outstanding man up to his last days in India would be greatly appreciated.

With all my excuses for the trouble I am giving you, thanking you in advance for your kind answer,

I am very truly yours

/s/ E. A. Vetchorine

P.S. Could I possibly correspond with you in Russian?
