My dear Sir:-

Professor J. H. Woods of the Division of Philosophy has referred to me your letter of April twenty-third. If you can present official information concerning your record in the University of London I think there is no doubt but that you can be admitted to Harvard College, without examination, as an Unclassified Student, to take any courses of instruction which you are prepared to take. At the end of your first year here the Committee on Admission will reconsider your case, and tell you the exact conditions under which you may be recommended for a Harvard degree. You should also, if possible, present official certificates covering your work in May College. You should make a formal application for admission on the blank which I enclose.

Under another cover I have sent you such pamphlets as we have in print descriptive of Harvard College. If after examining these pamphlets you wish to ask specific questions please do not hesitate to write to me.

Very truly yours,

A. F. Whittam

Mr. George Roerich

1 April 1921

MY DEAR SIR:—

I am happy to inform you that you have been selected by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences University Scholar for the academic year 1921-22, with a stipend of $ 250.

If you accept this appointment, you will be expected to devote yourself during the whole academic year to the study of Indic Philology as a resident student in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, under the regulations of that School (see the other side of this sheet). It will be your duty to register at No. 24 University Hall, on the first day of the academic year, Monday, 26 September, 1921, and to present a statement of your proposed studies for the year.

You are requested to give me notice, at your earliest convenience, whether you will accept this appointment, if it is awarded to you, and will conform to its conditions. The action of the Faculty consists in nominating you to the President and Fellows of Harvard College, who have the power of appointment. The appointment will not be made till a favorable answer has been received from you.

It is understood that the acceptance of this nomination shall preclude the acceptance of a fellowship or scholarship from any other university, college, or institution for the academic year 1921-22. Nominees who apply for or receive government grants for the year 1921-22 should furnish the Committee on Fellowships with full information in regard thereto. The Committee will decide in each case whether the amount and conditions of such a grant are inconsistent with the tenure of a scholarship or fellowship.

The Faculty is glad to nominate you for this appointment, and hopes to receive notice that you will accept it.

If you are not able to give your decision at once please acknowledge the receipt of this letter and inform me when I may expect your answer. The Faculty expects a final decision within two weeks.

Yours truly,

George W. Robinson,
Secretary of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

Mr. George N. Roerich.

FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS IN THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

REGULATIONS CONCERNING RESIDENT APPOINTMENTS

Every holder of a fellowship or scholarship is expected to retain such fellowship or scholarship throughout the year for which he is appointed, unless compelled to withdraw by stringent reasons; and to engage in no other occupation, without leave of the Administrative Board of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. In special cases, and on the particular recommendation of the Division or Department concerned, the Administrative Board may permit the holder of a scholarship to accept also an assistantship, provided that the duties of the latter are such as to require only a small amount of time, and that the combined stipends of the two appointments do not exceed three hundred and fifty dollars. A student who resigns a fellowship or scholarship in the course of a year has no claim to any part of the stipend of the fellowship or scholarship. The circumstances of his change of plans are, however, taken into consideration.

All appointments are made for one year only. In most instances, however, the holder of a fellowship or scholarship may, if he wishes, apply for reappointment or promotion. In such case he will be considered on the same terms as other candidates.

Any fellowship, other than a teaching fellowship, or scholarship to which the holder has been recommended for appointment by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, will be vacated by the subsequent marriage of the holder.

Every resident holder of a fellowship or scholarship is required to devote himself to studies, constituting a complete year's work, for which, as a fellow or scholar, he has obtained the approval of the Administrative Board of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences; and to do all the work belonging to such studies punctually, regularly, and with high credit. He is required to take all examinations in his studies, unless excused from one or more of them by the Chairman of his Division on the ground of preparation for the examinations for the doctorate. He is liable to be deprived of his appointment at any time, if he fail to satisfy these requirements.

PAYMENT OF INCOME

To resident holders of fellowships and scholarships having stipends, the income thereof is payable at the Bursar's Office, one-half January 20, and the remainder one week before Commencement; but the income will be first applied to the settlement of any College term-bills issued and unpaid, and any balance then remaining will be paid in money. A suitable portion of the stipend of a fellowship or scholarship may be obtained in advance for payment of the tuition-fee, the student making application therefor in person at the Bursar's office at the beginning of the academic year.

The appointment will be conditional upon your obtaining the Bachelor's degree from Harvard College in June, 1921.

NOTICE

By a vote of the Corporation, each student whose dues to the University remain unpaid on the day fixed for their payment is required at once to cease attending lectures or recitations, using the libraries, laboratories, gymnasium, athletic grounds or buildings, boarding at any of the University Dining Halls, and making use of any other privileges as a student, until his financial relations with the University have been arranged satisfactorily to the Bursar. Failure to comply with this rule is deemed cause for separation of the student from the University. A student in Harvard College who is deprived of his privileges for non-payment of dues is liable for a special fee of ten dollars upon his re-instatement.

Students who are candidates for degrees in the middle of the academic year must pay all dues to the University, not later than February 28, 1921.

All inquiries about Board and Extras should be made directly of the Auditor of the Dining Halls, at his office in Memorial Hall. Inquiries about charges at the Union should be made of the Manager, at the Union.
