CALENDAR

SUNDAY, MAY 29

†MORNING SERVICE. The Rev. CHARLES L. SLATTERY, Rector of Grace Church, New York City. Appleton Chapel, 11 A.M.
Seats in the North Gallery are open to the public.

MONDAY, MAY 30

MEMORIAL DAY. A holiday in all Departments of the University.

†MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES. (Under the joint auspices of the Harvard Memorial Society and the James A. Shannon Post of the American Legion.) Mr. JAMES BYRNE, Fellow of Harvard College, will preside. — Address by Major-General DAVID C. SHANKS, U. S. Army. Sanders Theatre, 12 M.

Harvard Veterans of the Civil War, Officers of the University, Graduates and other former members of the University, and Undergraduates, will assemble in front of University Hall at 11.45 o'clock, whence, on the arrival of Charles Beck Post, G. A. R., they will proceed to Sanders Theatre.

Harvard men who have been in the military or naval service of the country are requested to come in uniform if possible.

The Theatre will be open to ticket holders at 11.15 A.M. The second gallery will be open to the public.

Application for tickets should be made to Mr. FREDERICK L. ALLEN, 3 University Hall, Cambridge.

Flowers for the decoration of the Memorial Transept will be welcome, and a committee will be in attendance at half-past nine o'clock to receive and care for whatever flowers friends may kindly send.

After the exercises, the audience is invited to the Widener Library, where the Roll of Honor and the photographs of the Harvard men who gave their lives in the War will be on view; and large-scale maps of the battle-areas of the Western front, recently received, will be on exhibition.

TUESDAY, MAY 31

David A. Wells Prize

The David A. Wells Prize in economics for 1920-21 has been awarded to Zenas Clark Dickinson, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Economics at the University of Minnesota, for his thesis entitled "Economic Motives, or Social Psychology and Some of its Applications to Economics."

This prize of $500 is offered for the best thesis, embodying the results of original investigation, upon some subject in the field of economics.

Prize of the Harvard Club of North China

The Prize of $100, offered by the Harvard Club of North China for the best thesis on any subject connected with China, has been awarded to Dudley Tyng, A.B., S.T.B., of Milford, a seventh-year student in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, for a thesis entitled "Lao Tzu, a Study in Chinese Philosophy."

SUMMER SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
AND OF EDUCATION

In 1921 there will be one session of the Summer School, from Tuesday, July 5, to Saturday, August 13.

Courses will be offered in Architecture, Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Economics, Education, Engineering Sciences, English, Fine Arts, French, Geology, German, Government, Greek, History, Horticulture, Hygiene, Italian, Latin, Mathematics, Medical Sciences, Music, Philosophy, Physical Education, Physics, Psychology, Public Speaking, Social Ethics, and Spanish. Most of these courses are accepted as half-courses toward the degrees of A.B., A.A., and S.B., but cannot be counted in addition to the corresponding courses in Harvard College.

By recent votes of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences and the Faculty of the Graduate School of Education, a programme consisting of summer school work only may be presented for the degrees of A.M. and Ed.M.

Harvard undergraduates with an average of B or better during the previous academic year and men who, because of their service in the army, the navy, the volunteer police, or the state guard, deserve special consideration, may, in the Summer School of 1921, be allowed to count toward the degree of A.B. or S.B. two summer courses, but no undergraduate shall be permitted to obtain credit for more than one full course. Undergraduates not in the above categories shall not be permitted to obtain credit for more than one half-course.

The GAZETTE is published by Harvard University every Saturday. Announcements must reach 2 University Hall, Cambridge, Mass., not later than Wednesday of each week. Subscription price, $1.00 a year, payable in advance; check or money order, made payable to the order of Harvard University, should be sent to the Director of the Harvard University Press, 2 University Hall.
