His name is Roerich, who has close connection with the Royal family of Russia. He with his aged father, mother and elder brother lives at a distance of about 15 miles from Kulu, a desolated place, a lonely life. One of our friends tells us that Roerich's mother is sister of the Tsar of Russia. This family during the revolutionary days of Russia succeeded to Reach India with plenty of riches. Roerich's father is a Great Artist and writer. Roerich himself is a perfect artist who gets a handsome income through his paintings. Roerich's elder brother was holding an honoured post in Russian Army. A few months back he had written to Stalin to give him a chance of service to his country by admitting him back. But it is said that Stalin did not give any reply to his letter, as he is connected with the Capitalists and revolutionary mutineers.
