EXTRACTS from PRICE LIST & RULES.

DEPOSIT ORDER ACCOUNTS.

To save the trouble and expense of sending money with each order and to avoid the inconvenience of the V. P. system. Members may open Deposit Order Accounts with the Society for sums of not less than Rs. 30. After an Account is once opened, any less sum may be paid in. The Accounts are debited with the amount of each order and credited with the value of goods returned and other sums due.

Members opening Accounts are requested to give their full name and address, and usual signature. Order must be signed by the Members or by those authorised to draw on the Account.

CHEQUES ON DEPOSIT ORDER ACCOUNT.

Members wishing to pay from their Deposit Accounts with the Society for purchases elsewhere, or to make withdrawals for personal use, can, subject to the discretion of the Management, obtain cheque books containing 25 Cheques at the Chief Cashier's Office. These cheques can be cleared through any Banker.

These accounts do not bear interest and cannot be overdrawn.

PAYMENT.—In the absence of a Deposit Order Account, and when a remittance does not accompany the order goods will be sent per Value Payable Post.

Cheques, Money Orders and Postal Orders should be made Payable to the "A. & N. C. S. Ld." and crossed "& Co."

Letters containing coins, currency notes, etc., should be sent by registered post.

DESPATCH.—In sending orders Members are requested to kindly state whether they wish the Goods sent by Post, Pasanger train, Goods train or Steamer. In the absence of definite instructions regarding the mode of despatch, goods are invariably sent by the cheapest method.

Members are specially requested, when telegraphing respecting their orders, to give full particulars as to the Department and nature of goods referred to as owing to the absence of this information it is frequently necessary to communicate with the sender before the order can be traced.

GOODS REQUIRING TIME TO MANUFACTURE OR PREPARE, such as PRINTING, STAMPING, BOOK-BINDING, ENGLY ING, GOPPER DIATE PRINTING. Etc., will be SENT SEPARATELY, to avoid describe order unless the rest of the order unless instructions are given to the contrary.

EXTRACTS from PRICE LIST & RULES.

DEPOSIT ORDER ACCOUNTS

To save the trouble and expense of sending money with each order and to avoid the inconvenience of the V.-P. system, Members may open Deposit Order Accounts with the Society for sums of not less than Rs. 30. After an Account is once opened, any less sum may be paid in. The Accounts are debited with the amount of each order and credited with the value of goods returned and other sums due.

Members opening Accounts are requested to give their full name and address; and usual signature. Orders must be signed by the Members or by those authorised to draw on the Account.

CHEQUES ON DEPOSIT ORDER ACCOUNT

Members wishing to pay from their Deposit Accounts with the Society for purchases elsewhere, or to make withdrawals for personal user can, subject to the discretion of the Management, obtain cheque books containing 25 Cheques at the Chief Cashier's Office. These cheques can be cleared through any Banker.

These Accounts do not bear interest and cannot be overdrawn.

PAYMENT.—In the absence of a Deposit Order Account, and when a remittance does not accompany the order, goods will be sent per Value Payable Post.

Cheques, Money Orders and Postal Orders should be made Payable to the "A. & N. C. S. Ld." and crossed "& Co."

Letters containing coins, currency notes, etc., should be sent by registered post.

DESPATCH.—In sending orders Members are requested to kindly state whether they wish the Goods sent by Post, Passenger train. Goods train or Steamer. In the absence of definite instructions regarding the mode of despatch, goods are invariably sent by the cheapest method.

Members are specially requested when telegraphing respecting their orders, to give full particulars as to the Department and nature of goods referred to as owing to the absence of this information it is frequently necessary to communicate with the sender before the order can be traced.

GOODS REQUIRING TIME TO MANUFACTURE OR PREPARE. such as PRINTING, STAMPING, BOOK-BINDING, ENGRAVING, COPPER-PLATE PRINTING, Etc. will be SENT SEPARATELY to avoid delaying the rest of the order, unless special instructions are given to the contrary.

NOTE:

If it is desired to retain a copy of the Order, place the accompanying piece of carbon paper between two leaves and write the Order with a pen or pencil, preferably the former on the upper leaf.

CORRESPONDENCE—Members are requested, in their own interests, to address all communications on the Society's business to "THE MANAGER" and not to any individual by name. In the former case no delay can occur, but in the latter the Society will not hold itself responsible for replies, or for the execution of orders, or for remittances enclosed, as it is possible that the letters might not be opened by the person to whom they are addressed for a considerable time. The naval, military, or other rank or description of the writer should be given to prevent misdirection of replies.
