Dear Sir:

It is a long time now since we had any money from you and your account still stands at £26.18s.6d. due.

Please let us have your remittance in settlement of this by return mail.

Yours faithfully,

KEGAN PAUL, TRENCH, TRUBNER & CO. LTD.

Dear Sir;

Supposing that you are now again in New York, I beg to draw your kind attention once more to the fact that on your account there is outstanding the sum of RM. 87.24.

I hope you are going to conform with my indications and I should be glad if you would kindly honor me with your cheque. Please accept in advance my best thanks for your endeavors.

I take the opportunity to express my regret that since a very long time you did not give me your esteemed orders out of my "Litterae Orientales". Therefore I recommend them to your kind attention once more, and I should be glad if in future you would again honor me with your orders.

Awaiting your further news with interest, I beg to remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

OTTO HARRASSOWITZ

Dear Sir;

Our records show that on January 9th, 1933 we supplied you with goods value 30/- as per invoice herewith enclosed.

We cannot understand why you have kept us so long with this account and why we have not had the courtesy of a reply.

Will you be good enough to answer this letter by return.

Yours faithfully,
