1. The manuscript must be fully edited, type-written, double spaced on one side only. All instructions must be clearly stated on a separate sheet, failing which the PRESS will follow its own Rules of the House. No addition, alteration etc., in the MSS. after estimation will be permitted, unless agreed to in writing by the PRESS. The PRESS will not be responsible for carrying out any oral instructions.
2. Any omissions in proofs and strike order will be at client's risk, though the PRESS will do its best. Proofs must be returned within 24 hours of submission failing which a rental of 10% per day will be charged for the locked up material. Any alterations, deletions, additions, etc., in the proofs will be charged extra. Oral instructions are acceptable only at client's risk. The client is entitled to only one set of galley proofs and one set of page proofs. Extra sets will be chargeable.
3. The quotation is subject to market fluctuations and holds good for two weeks from the date of quotation. Sales Tax, Postage, Packing, forwarding, Telegram, Trunk-call charges etc., will be extra. Cost of blocks, drawings, designs are extra. Cost of extra colour printing or any other process not involved or mentioned in the original sample or MSS or enquiry will be extra. All quotations are ex-premises.
4. Paper stored by the PRESS for the CLIENT will be at his risk in case of damage, shortage, loss, fire, etc. Blocks and other materials supplied by the Client must be taken back immediately the work is over and the Press will not be responsible for them after 7 days of completion of work. The Client must provide at least 10% extra for wastage while supplying materials, including paper.
5. Delivery must be taken within 7 (seven) days of completion failing which demurrage* at 10% per month will be charged for the first month after which the Press reserves the right to dispose off the materials in any manner at its sole discretion. The Press will not be responsible for any delay in the execution of any work due to closure, failure of power, strikes, lock-outs, non-availability of materials or spares etc., or the failure on the part of the client in supplying in time any materials e.g., blocks, MSS., drawings, paper etc.
6. Urgent work may be undertaken, at the discretion of the Management, provided the client pays for the over-time labour and supervision charges. A written undertaking to this effect should be given by the client.
7. The Press reserves all rights for refusing to print any block, MSS., drawings, etc., for reasons of inaccuracy, technical defects, obscenity, libel, infringement of copyright, designs, patents etc., etc. The client will be fully responsible for any loss in money, legal fees, reputation, good-will etc., incurred by the Press in all cases where the client has infringed the legal provisions of the various acts of the State and Central Govt. Disputes, if any, are only subject to Jurisdiction of the Mysore courts, Bangalore.
8. Advance, in full, as per estimate should be paid while placing the order. Part advance payment is accepted at the discretion of the Press Manager, but the Press reserves all rights to claim full advance at any time while work is in progress.
9. Bills must be settled when delivery is made. Interest at 9% will be charged on bills not paid within 30 days of presentation.
