My dear Sir:

I have heard many times of your wonderful collection of Tibetan paintings and although I have not had the honor of meeting you, may I write this to say that we are to have an exhibition which will open at the Wildenstein Galleries on November 11th and I am mailing you a catalogue so that you will have a rough idea as to the composition of this exhibition.

I sincerely hope that you will find time to come and see what we have. We have besides this exhibition a selection of Siamese and Tibetan paintings which we have kept in storage on account of lack of room to display them but, of course, if you are interested in these paintings I will have them taken out and show them to you.

Hoping to have the honor of seeing you, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) C. T. Loo

My dear Mr. Loo:

In Dr. Georges de Roerich's absence from the city, we take the liberty of acknowledging your courteous invitation for him to visit your exhibition at the Wildenstein Galleries. As Dr. de Roerich is at present in India, he will be unable to avail himself of your invitation. However, we shall be glad to forward your letter and the catalogue to him, as we know that he will be pleased to receive these.

Sincerely yours,

Vice-President

P.S. It will give me sincere pleasure to visit your exhibition.
