ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA

April 10, 1933

To the Trustees and Executive Committee of the Archaeological Institute of America:

It is a great pleasure to report that the Carnegie Corporation has given to the American Council of Learned Societies six thousand dollars, to be given to the Archaeological Institute for the enlargement of the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ARCHAEOLOGY.

It is expected that this sum will be appropriated to the Institute in four payments as follows: 1933-$2,000, 1934-$1,500, 1935-$1,500, 1936-$1,000.

This will enable the Editors to publish a Journal even more attractive than that issued last year.

This splendid gift is the result of a request made to the American Council of Learned Societies by Mr. Albert Gallatin ably seconded by Professors Dinsmoor and Shear. No credit whatever is due to the President of the Institute.

Respectfully,

Louis E. Lord
