

PAINTINGS BY PROF. NICHOLAS ROERICH
TO KEJRIWAL FAMILY

1. "ALEXANDER NEVSKY"

He was the Grand Duke, the Ruler in North West Russia and he defeated the German Knights - the 'TUTON KNIGHTS' in 13th Century.

2. "SHAMBALA"

Shambala is the legendary abode of the great spirits, the great arahats who keep vigil over the fates of humanity. This legend is prevelent throughout Asia and Shambala was originally located as womewhere in the Tibetan Mountains (uplands).

3. "THE SNOW MAIDEN"

A legend of the Himalayas of people who live in the highest reaches of the mountains.

PAINTINGS BY SVETOSLAV TO
KEJRIWAL FAMILY

1. "TOILING BY NIGHT"

Painted in Kulu in 1938. Taking the Harvest down from the Upper reaches to the Himalayas.

2. "OVER THE PASS" - 1937

The Tibetan Caravan is crossing the Pass in the Western Tibetan Himalayas region. The painting depicts the gales that usually blow over the Passes.

PAINTINGS BY PROF. NICHOLAS ROERICH
FOR THE BIRLA MUSEUM AND BIRLA
FAMILY -

1. "THE KNIGHTS AWAKEN"

There is an ancient legend that in the course of centuries the old knights have become petrified, have turned to stone and only great historic events of the future will bring them back to life and they will awaken to defend their Motherland. This painting depicts the knights awakening from their slumber

2. "THE MESSAGE OF SHAMBALA"

Shambala is the legendary abode of the great spirits, the great arahats who keep vigil over the fates of humanity. The legend is prevalent throughout Asia and Shambala was originally located as somewhere in the Tibetan Mountains (uplands).

PAINTINGS BY SVETOSLAV ROERICH FOR THE
BIRLA MUSEUM AND BIRLA FAMILY

1. "KANCHENJUNGA" - SUNSET (Tempera)

2. "PORTRAIT OF Mme. DEVIKA RANI ROERICH" (Oil)

3. "LANDSCAPE" (Tempera)

PAINTINGS BY PROF. NICHOLAS ROERICH
TO KEJRIWAL FAMILY

1. "ALEXANDER NEVSKY"

He was the Grand Duke, the Ruler in North West Russia and he defeated the German Knights - the 'TUTON KNIGHTS' in 13th Century.

2. "SHAMBALA"

Shambala is the legendary abode of the great spirits, the great arahats who keep vigil over the fates of humanity. This legend is prevelent throughout Asia and Shambala was originally located as womewhere in the Tibetan Mountains (uplands).

3. "THE SNOW MAIDEN"

A legend of the Himalayas of people who live in the highest reaches of the mountains.

PAINTINGS BY SVETOSLAV TO
KEJRIWAL FAMILY

1. "TOILING BY NIGHT"

Painted in Kulu in 1938. Taking the Harvest down from the Upper reaches to the Himalayas.

2. "OVER THE PASS" - 1937

The Tibetan Caravan is crossing the Pass in the Western Tibetan Himalayas region. The painting depicts the gales that usually blow over the Passes.

4

PAINTINGS BY PROF. NICHOLAS ROERICH
FOR THE BIRLA MUSEUM AND BIRLA
FAMILY -

1. "THE KNIGHTS AWAKEN"

There is an ancient legend that in the course of centuries the old knights have become petrified, have turned to stone and only great historic events of the future will bring them back to life and they will awaken to defend their Motherland. This painting depicts the knights awakening from their slumber

2. "THE MESSAGE OF SHAMBALA"

Shambala is the legendary abode of the great spirits, the great arahats who keep vigil over the fates of humanity. The legend is prevalent throughout Asia and Shambala was originally located as somewhere in the Tibetan Mountains (uplands).

PAINTINGS BY SVETOSLAV ROERICH FOR THE
BIRLA MUSEUM AND BIRLA FAMILY

1. "KANCHENJUNGA" - SUNSET (Tempera)
2. "PORTRAIT OF Mme. DEVIKA RANI ROERICH" (Oil)
3. "LANDSCAPE" (Tempera)