A Lady's Shoe

IN the early days of the eighteenth century "the toast of the town" was Lavinia Fenton, the original Polly of "The Beggars Opera" who afterwards became the Duchess of Bolton.

The story goes that in a London tavern famed for the skill of its celebrated cook, Tom Pierce, a party of gallants toasted Miss Fenton in wine drunk out of one of her shoes. But that was not the end of the shoe. In their zeal to honour the most popular actress of the day, the party consigned the shoe to Tom Pierce, who subsequently produced it "exquisitely ragood for their supper!"

VISION IN STEEL

Medicine

Providing adequate medical aid for the peasants and labourers is closely bound up with the country's material advancement.

Building of hospitals, the manufacture of hospital furniture, equipment and pharmaceutical preparations, the establishment of medical colleges and research laboratories—all these are essential for the promotion of health and prosperity of India.

Here, as in all other spheres of reconstruction, Tata Steel will play its part.
