

TELEGRAMS
ENGLISHMAN

The Englishman

OVER ONE HUNDRED YEARS
CONTINUOUS PUBLICATION

TELEPHONE
483—484

LONDON OFFICE:
198-199, TEMPLE CHAMBERS
TEMPLE AVENUE,
E. C. 4.

1
9, Hare Street,
Calcutta, June 6th, 1928

Professor Roerich,
Hillside Cottage,
Darjeeling.

Dear Sir,

I should like to thank you for the extraordinarily good story you gave to the man I sent to see you. It is possible that the particular edition of the paper that you saw did not contain the complete interview. The telegram was slow in coming in and was in parts badly mutilated. We were, therefore, unable to get the complete story in in time for that edition, which leaves for Darjeeling. I am sending you a copy of our Town edition in which the story appears complete.

If you are coming down to Calcutta I shall be very pleased to meet you as I was exceedingly interested in the account of what you had to endure. You must, I am afraid, have had a very unpleasant time and I hope that it has left no ill effects. Perhaps you would care to let me know when you will arrive in Calcutta if you decide to come here, as I should look forward to being able to arrange a meeting.

Yours very truly,

J. T. J. Jaway
Editor.