Professor Nicholas Roerich

New York, New York

Dear Professor Roerich,

We have the honor to inform you that by a special resolution passed by the Corporation on March 24, 1929, you are invited to become the Honorary President of the Alatas Publishing House, Incorporated, as you were at the beginning of its organization.

The resolution referring with joy to the ceremony of the laying of the cornerstone of that monument to art, science and literature erected in New York City in honor of your name, points with pride to the fact that our Corporation was inaugurated with your help and headed by your name at the exact spot on which now rises this great, historical monument, the Master Building.

Now on this date, July the 18th, six years from the date of your first message to Georgi Dmitrievitch Grebenstchikoff, we begin a new spiritual contact with you, a new germination. Three years after the founding of the cultural colony of Churaevka in the United States of America for the sake of the further progress of Alatas, we are happy to declare to you that Alatas and Churaevka have done their utmost to follow the path you indicated, with your wise and powerful spiritual teaching.

Greeting you on your arrival from Asia in the United States, we hasten to thank you deeply for the honor you have done us in allowing the Alatas Publishing House to print your new book, The Heart of Asia. You have not only encouraged us morally, but you have also reassured and aided us
