

Excerpts from Voks Letter-

" I think, I already wrote you that the manuscript of Professor Roerich's book "SLAVA" duly came in hand and evoked a great interest among the leading Soviet artists - members of the Painting and Graphic Section of VOKS. The manuscript was discussed during the session of the Section and, as far as I know, the painters are preparing a letter to you, containing their opinion on Professor Roerich's work. "
