My dear Mr. Roerich,

Your letter of

2/2/29.

I am sending you a complimentary copy of my little article on a Bon Image.

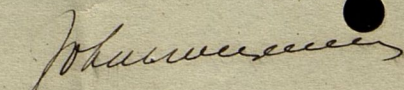

The little work by Sarat Chandra Das was published separately under the title "Indian Pandits in the land of snow."

The Journal of the Buddhist Text Society are now difficult to get. The Society does not exist any longer. Harrossowitz, Luzac & Co., Blackwell or ~~H~~effner, sometimes offer it in their second hand catalogues, and you will probably get it earlier in Europe than here in India.

P.T.O.

There is an article by Sarat Chandra
Das on "The Bon Religion" in our Journal, old series, Vol.50 (1881), Pt.1, No.3.
A few copies are still in stock at Rs.6/- a copy.

Yours sincerely,

General Secretary,
Asiatic Society of Bengal.

No. 424.

27th February, 1929.

My dear Mr. Roerich,

Your letter of 28/1/29.

Dr. Chatterji has handed over your paper on Tibetan Phonology, and it has been presented to the January Meeting and accepted for publication in the Journal. There is a technical difficulty about it as our press does not possess the phonetic signs, and we have to make arrangements to have these made or procured.

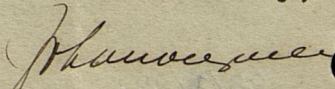

As to writing a compte rendu of Bacot's work, that will be welcome. You should however give it the form of an independent article or note, as we do not publish book reviews as such. The same same subject matter can of course by a slight change of wording be presented in an independent form.

I shall be glad to see it.

Yours sincerely,

General Secretary,
Asiatic Society of Bengal.
