

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

April 24, 1935.

To the American
Diplomatic and Consular Officers.

Sirs:

At the instance of the Honorable Sol Bloom, Representative in the Congress of the United States from the State of New York, I take pleasure in introducing to you Mr. Louis Levy Horch of New York,
New York, who is about to proceed abroad.

I cordially bespeak for Mr. Horch such courtesies and assistance as you may be able to render, consistently with your official duties.

Very truly yours,

6
