

Nov. 9, 1935.

Dear Mrs. Lichtmann:

This is a letter I have just received, from Mr. Julius Weiss.
Please advise me if you have any funds available to meet this obligation.

Very truly yours,
LOUIS L. HORCH?

My dear Mr. Horch:

In replying to your note of Nov. 9th with reference to Mr. Julius Weiss's, I regret to advise that the situation of the School has not changed in any material way since my note to you of October 24th last.

We still have the unpaid large debt to our faculty and other pressing demands of the School, which we are doing our utmost to meet.

In connection with all of these loans, it was our understanding that pursuant to your statement at one of the Trustee's meetings, the Tax Exemption Funds would be allocated and devoted to the gradual payment of outstanding debts of the nature, among others, of Mr. Weiss's account.

Very truly yours,

(copy re Weiss's - Monday, 1/2/22)
