ASSEMBLY HALL

MUSICAL PRELUDE

THE SERVICE—"The Deep Well of Joy"

Dramatic improvisations from the poetry of Rabindranath Tagore and Nicholas Roerich, by Bertha Kunz Baker. The musical background, based on native Indian airs, is composed and rendered by Edwin Lathrop Baker.

Tagore Episodes:—

Poet and People — — The Stream of Life — — His Silent Steps — — The Innermost One — — When I bring you colored toys — — O Mother, the young Prince — — Time is short — — Light, my light — — You came down from your throne — — I had gone a-begging — — The night darkened — — Where the mind is without fear.

— — — — —
"Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high;
Where knowledge is free;
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments
by narrow domestic walls;
Where words come out from the depths of truth;
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit;
Where the mind is led forward by thee into ever-widening thought and action—
Into that heaven of freedom, my father, let my country
awake!"

Roerich Episodes:—

Untrimmed Lamps — — In the Forest — — The Tower of the Winds — — The Messenger of Healing — — Madonna Laboris — — We are not Dreamers.

— — — — —
"We are not dreamers. We are builders of Life.
We will not exile the spirit of Beauty
From the home, nor the workshop, nor the streets of the city.
In Beauty our strength is multiplied;
In Beauty, Love and Action—we conquer.
We call all the world to this feast of Joy."

MUSICAL POSTLUDE

(The offering will be taken at the door as you leave.)
