BOOKS BY NICHOLAS ROERICH

ADAMANT—A collection of artistic and philosophical analyses, the keynote of which is the conquering of materialism through beauty and knowledge. Includes such well-known essays as "Paths of Blessing"; "Joy of Art"; "Beauty the Conqueror." 12 mo, paper, pp. 139. $1.00

ALTAI HIMALAYA†—With an introduction by Claude Bragdon. An inspiring record of the journeys of Nicholas Roerich's Expedition to India, Tibet, Chinese Turkestan and Siberia, by one who saw his unique experiences through the eyes of the artist, the philosopher and archaeologist. Published by Frederick A. Stokes Company, New York. Many illustrations and end-paper map. 8 vo, cloth, pp. 407. $5.00

FLAME IN CHALICE—Translated by Mary Siegrist. First collection of Roerich's poetry to appear in book form.

"In the poetry of Roerich . . . there is a fullness and expansion of consciousness, a vibration of light and color, a sense of prophecy and ongoing, of search, discovery and fulfillment that is as much part of his singing word as of the colors and contours of his brush." Mary Siegrist.

New Era Library, Roerich Museum Press, Series X, Book I. 12 mo, cloth, pp. 106. $1.50

HEART OF ASIA—A synthesis of Roerich's impression of the spirit of the East, which has gestated in turn each great religion of the world. Roerich here crystallizes the past and the future hope of the heart of Asia. New Era Library, Roerich Museum Press, Series II, Book I. 12 mo, cloth, pp. 171. $1.50

SHAMBHALA THE RESPLENDENT†—Shambhala is the most sacred word of Asia, representing the hope which pulsates throughout all Asia in a new renaissance of the Spirit. Published by Frederick A. Stokes Company, New York. 12 mo, cloth, pp. 316. $2.50

Kindly add postage to list price in all cases (except within New York City).
