Mr. George Roerich,
The Roerich Museum,
310 Riverside Drive,
New York City.

Subject: Lecture

My dear Mr. Roerich:

I wonder if you are going to be available for a lecture in Cleveland next fall. If you are lecturing on some phase of Asian painting I should like to have you on December 12, for that date fits into a course on painting. If you are speaking on some other side of oriental art, I should like to fit you into some other series on Friday evenings. Will you be kind enough to get in touch with me to let me know if you are available, and on what terms and on what subject?

Yours very truly,

Rossiter Howard, Curator

My dear Mr. Howard:

We have received your kind letter and wish to inform you that since we are not quite certain at this time whether Dr. George Roerich will be in America again next December, we shall be very glad to recommend to you for the date which you mention, December 12, Miss Francis R. Grant, Vice-President of the Roerich Museum.

Miss Grant is a very fine lecturer and writer, and has given a great many lectures on the art of Professor Roerich, on Tibetan art and painting, and on other phases of Eastern art.

If you will kindly state in what particular phase of Asian painting you would be most interested, I am sure Miss Grant would be very glad to give a lecture on whatever theme you suggest.

May we hear from you soon in regard to this?

Sincerely yours,

Vice-President
