My dear Miss Eglof:

The unparalleled growth of the Master Institute of Roerich Museum since entering its permanent home in the Roerich Museum at 310 Riverside Drive, has resulted in the tripling of the number of students. The enclosed catalogue will give you a very concise idea of the scope of our work which is being constantly increased by numerous additions to the present courses. Many distinguished artists, musicians and lecturers have been added to the present faculty.

Our program comprises all arts taught under one roof so that a student who chooses to specialize in any one field has also close association with the other arts in the daily work of our Institution. Enrollment in our courses
