

27-MAY-1938.

Dear Dr.Chakravarty,

On behalf of FLAMMA QUARTERLY,U.S.A., I thank you most sincerely for the two beautiful Poems by Rabindranath Tagore received for Flamma Quarterly, which will be included in the first issue.

Thank you also very much for having elucidated the matter of the misdelivery of letters. In this connected we would be very thankful if you would let us know how personal letters for Dr.Rabindranath Tagore and how letters for the V.B.Quarterly have to be addressed to reach properly. In response to V.B.'s request for an article, Prof.Roerich sends you his best greetings . As soon as his essay "Creativeness" will be translated into English we will send it to the address which you will indicate.

The Editors of FLAMMA Quarterly will be grateful to you, if, when writing to the Venerable Poet, you would kindly transmit our thanks and respects.

With kind regards to yourself, Mrs Chakravarty and your family

Yours sincerely

Dear Dr. Shibayer,

Dr. Tagore wants me to tell you that he is delighted to hear of your appreciation of his poems — he is glad they are appearing in the Flamma.

Please communicate with Mr. Anil Chanda, Private Secretary to Dr. Tagore, whenever you need any helpful cooperation in connection with literary matters etc. He will place the matter immediately before the Poet. Any letters from Prof. Roerich himself or from you written to Dr. Tagore will ~~be~~ be directly placed before him.

His address, wherever he might be, would be — SANTINIKETAN, BENGAL.

I have also had a talk with the Editor of the Visvabharati Quarterly — Mr. K. Kripalani. He will welcome with eagerness & expect any original article or message from Professor Roerich and would always be at your service.

I have had to come away
here, far from the Pargals Hills, to attend to my mother who is ill.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely
Amiya Chakravarty
