First Congress of the International Union for the ROERICH PACT

Held at Bruges-September 13-15th 1931

(1)- A declaration affirming the principles pertaining to the Protection of Works of Art should be solicited from the Powers, whose Representatives will be assembled at the Disarmament Conference at Geneva.

(2)- The Permanent Committee of the International Union for the Roerich Pact should do every effort to insure the adoption of the Roerich Pact and the recognition of the Roerich Pact Banner by all States in the shortest possible time.

(3)- The Congress request the Governments to protect all the buildings dedicated to worship, and generally the Monuments bequeathed to us by past generations

* (4)- A Section, dealing especially with the protection of Works of Art, on the theater of military operations, should be created in the general Staff of every Army.

(5)- Instructions as to the protection of Works of Art and of Nature should be given in all schools. Children should be made to love Art and Beauty.

(6)- The "Comité International d'Histoire de l'Art", and all scientific, artistic, and cultural organizations throughout the world, should be requested to cooperate with the International Union for the Roerich Pact in view of the attainment of the Union's aims.

(7)- The City of Bruges should become the Center of all activities in favour of the adoption of the Roerich Pact. A permanent Committee will be formed, and will work in close cooperation with the European Center of the Roerich Museum at Paris.

Resolutions of the Congress of 1931 (extract from my Report of Oct. 15th 1931) which have been confirmed by the 2nd Congress (August 7-8th 1932, see my Report Bruges No. 3),
* with the exception of Resolution 4.
