My dear Mr. Tulpinck:

Today America unites in spirit with Belgium and all other countries which are participating in the momentous Second International Conference of the Roerich Pact under the auspices of the "Union Internationale pour le Pacte Roerich."

Deeply cognizant of the historic significance of this occasion and confident that its fruits will bring new understanding and Brotherhood to the World through Prof. Roerich's ideal of "Peace through Culture", the Trustees of the Roerich Museum send you their salutations and greetings. We know that your splendid efforts towards the fulfillment of Nicholas Roerich's plan, will constitute a great solvent for the present World problems and herald a new era of Peace on Earth through the recognition of man's creative spirit.

Through you, we also express our deep gratitude to that World Spirit, Nicholas Roerich, for uplifting before humanity the cosmic Banner of Beauty.

With expressions of my deepest esteem, I remain

Cordially

LOUIS L. HORCH - PRESIDENT

M. Camille Tulpinck
