Dear Friends:

Greetings! It gives me great pleasure to be able to salute you, crusaders of peace, on behalf of the Finnish Roerich Association and its affiliates.

The magnificent strides you have made and are making in the true cause of universal peace through culture are to be highly complimented. You are carrying the one light which has taken us out of the dark ages, the one light which will bring us ultimate happiness and security, the one light which will remain when others have died. "The one and only everlasting light of Peace, Truth, and Culture."

Allow me, friends of a common cause, to extend the very best wishes of the Finnish Roerich Association on this great occasion and again to compliment your enthusiastic work for the future betterment of mankind.

Sincerely yours,

Signed: Alan Fillmore.
