UNITED STATES SENATE

Committee on Claims,
Washington, D. C.

July 13, 1932.

My dear Mr. Tolson:

It is with pleasure that I commend the idea of the Banner of Peace, as promulgated by Professor Roerich in 1929, for the purpose of protecting treasures of culture.

I extend my greetings and best wishes for success to those in attendance at the Second International Conference for the Roerich Pact to be held in Bruges this month.

Sincerely,

Signed: R. B. Howell
