Dear Sir,

I am obliged to you for your letter dated the 28th October last. Kindly convey my expression of gratefulness to Prof. de Roerich for the banner that he has presented me. I will use it privately for the time being.

I would like to join the Convention, and should like to be told whether the subscriptions mentioned are single donations or annual ones. Also intimate at what rate should I calculate the dollar in Indian money and if I can remit my part to your goodself.

I am obliged for the post card you have sent up, and for the good letter you have written to me.

With best wishes for the success of the Convention and its aims and objects,

I remain,

Cordially yours

Dear Sir,

I beg to thank you for your letter dated the 10th instant and am obliged for your agreeing to remit my subscription to the Convention to New-York. I have already sent you the amount by Money Order and hope the same will reach you ere this.

As previously intimated, I have to-day hoisted the Banner of Peace in the centre of the garden which holds my collection of sculptures. Of course, this is a private act for the time being, but all the same I must express my gratitude to the Master for presenting me the same. Banner.

It has given me an opportunity to express my whole hearted support to the great idea and the Convention and will be source of propagating the idea in this part of the country.

Thanking you for the trouble you are taking for me.

Cordially yours,

Shardaprasad
