Professor Nicholas Roerich, the eminent Russian painter, is so well known both in this country and abroad that any introduction from me seems superfluous: nevertheless it gives me great pleasure to say that I know Professor Roerich personally, and shall be glad if (as I am sure will be the case) every facility can be extended to him by Museums and Public Institutions, so as to enable him to realise the artistic and archaeological aims which he has in view.

Dear Professor Roerich,

Many thanks for your letter of the 28th April. I am sure you do not need a testimonial from me to enable you to get every facility for the pursuit of your studies from Museums and Public Institutions. Nevertheless it gives me great pleasure to send you the enclosed note, which I trust may be of real service to you.

With all good wishes.

Yours very truly,

Cecil Hammit Smith.
