

Panasenko's dream.

A pure white pigeon was flying high over his head and then ^{the} pigeon flew in a direct line to a far distant place where people were gathered but the only person recognized by him was Prof. Roerich. — Then he woke up & went to sleep again. —

This time Katherine and Inge were with him & high over the 3 were three pure white pigeons which suddenly flew in a straight line towards a far off goal; which was again Prof. Roerich surrounded by small group of people. — Then Panasenko woke up & went to sleep again. —

Again Katherine & Inge were with him. Again three white pigeons were flying above our heads & then flying straight to a goal, but this time the goal was easier to recognize. Prof. Roerich standing in the middle & M^{me} Roerich on one side & another gentleman on the other (Panasenko says it might have been George). The pigeons one pigeon landed on Prof. R. head where else the other two pigeons were each circling around the head of M^{me} R & around the head of the other gentleman.

Another dream of Panasenko's.

M^{me} R. appeared to him in the night and said with a warning finger: "Listen - 2 and 10". She repeated saying that about 3 times.

Do you think 2 + 10 could be M.H. - & you know whom we call 10 - ?
over

Juges dream:

The night after the court I saw Judge Roseman tossing around in bed not knowing what kind of a decision to give. At last he delivered his decision which was so oracular that the lawyers on each side saw it in their favor.

Panasenko's dream.

A pure white pigeon was flying high over his head and then ^{the} pigeon flew in a direct line to a far distant place where people were gathered but the only person recognized by him was Prof. Roerich. — Then he woke up & went to sleep again. —

This time Katherine and Inge were with him & high over the 3 were three pure white pigeons which suddenly flew in a straight line towards a far off goal; which was again Prof. Roerich surrounded by small group of people. — Then Panasenko woke up & went to sleep again. —

Again Katherine & Inge were with him. Again three white pigeons were flying above our heads & then flying straight to a goal but this time the goal was easier to recognize. Prof. Roerich standing in the middle & M^{me} Roerich on one side & another gentleman on the other (Panasenko says it might have been George). The pigeons one pigeon landed on Prof. R. head where else the other two pigeons were each circling around the head of M^{me} R. & around the head of the other gentleman.

Another dream of Panasenko's.

M^{me} R. appeared to him in the night and said with a warning finger: "Listen - 2 and 10". She repeated saying that about 3 times.

Do you think 2 & 10 - could be M.H. - & you know where we call 10 - ?

over

March 20 1896
