We would be lost without them. Many many thank for your wonderful guidance.
- " 3 - Mackormick visited the Museum. I admire the 1006 paintings and never feel tired in Museum. Thinks Banner of Peace most beautiful thought, Norwood calls Museum Cathedral of Culture.
- " 8 - Battle says foreclosure not against Roerich Museum, but against building. The name of the building was known as Riverside and 103rd Street Building.
- " 11 - Rickaby says that building will remain in the hands of the R.M. Re reorganization. Rickaby asks if all things of R.M. belong to R.M. I replied - all paintings of Museum belong to Nation and told him of letter to President Hoover.
but added they are placed in special trust fund, also other objects of Museum. Rickaby says: Will you assure me you will not transfer anything more to other funds. I gave my assurance.
- " 12 - Battle likes Prof. Roerich's idea of pledges. Regarding our gift to the Nation, July 24, 1929, Weiss felt donation valueless, because not acknowledged by Hoover or Congress.
Tornaro, friend Mrs Whitesaide is connected with US Govt.
- " 13 - Stokes greatly concerned over paintings. "Gift" not accepted by Hoover, Congress, Senat - in his opinion still property of R.M. Foreclosure could endanger paintings of Museu.

- * May 2 - I rejoice with all my spirit at the lines of Sarti about Mother. Not book, but books should be written about Her. It is a great joy to write to you that every member of our circle stands firmly and fearlessly during these difficult times. Hardly any money has been drawn by them during the last two months. Really I don't know on what they live.
- June 10 - Lyeth said Horch is too impetuous and acts too quick.
- " 11 - Prof. R. prefers rooms to be scattered throughout the building so that every floor could have one room where exhibitions could be held.
- " 13 - Horch said to Lyeth - we will act to the limit. Rickaby said we went to the Bronx because we control the Judge and the Receiver. These great law firms rejoice that they have such power and are so crooked. Greenbaum says: we don't blame the loss from campaign on receivership. This was stupid of him. In March $1000 was drawn by me in interest. LLH conveys to Rickaby that he will act to the limit. We shall fight and I am certain Rickaby and his gang will be destroyed for this outrageous action. Saw Stokes - I showed him my vouchers His stopped his legal criticism and I think he will give some money.
- " 14 - All plans of Ernst are out. I would not consider them at all. Ernst organization plans are definitely out. Everything must be under our control, when people are fighting me I give no concessions. Our lower floors could not be converted for more than 36 rooms.
- " 26 - p.15 - Do you advise to dissolve the Master Institute of United Arts now. The land at Moriah was given to NSH. This was done as a protective measure. Charles Dawes bank in difficulty but he secures $80,000,000 loan from the Government. Nothing like being in right with the Government racket.
- " 29 - p.17 - to have so many rooms rented is an achievement second to none. It is only the presence ~~xxx~~ of the Museum and the Trustees that makes this possible.
