During summer 1931 ? Mr. H. spoke often to K.C. and I.F. about the advisability of putting away gold as inflation seemed certain. Thereupon K.C. consulted him as to whether he could help her to procure gold to put away for dire needs.

~~xxxx~~

At the same time he stressed the point that should a bankcrisis ~~should~~ arise only gold would be of value but adding that even then it would be of little use to the person in a vault as the U.S. ~~could~~ could close up all ~~xxxx~~ privately owned vaults.

These discussions of gold continued off and on throughout the summer. Later in the Fall Mr. H. advised K.C. to put away some gold. K.C. told him that this would be very difficult to get to which he replied that he can do it very easily. K.C. (Sometime late Fall or beginning of 1932.)

told him that she would like to keep 10,000 in gold for her family. Mr. H. offered and procured this gold. K.C. brought a special box to his apt. in which this gold had to be kept. K.C. ~~requested~~ <sup>entrusted</sup> Mr. H. to keep this box with gold on the 29th Floor of the R.M. Building, in a room where she knew that there was a special steel cabinet where most important things were kept by the Trustees, they being the only ones who had access to that room. He promised to do so and she left the box with gold with him, as she trusted him implicitly. (First part of April) ~~to~~ ~~axx~~ ~~xxxx~~ During one of her visits to the Horch's ~~xxxx~~ Mrs. H. ~~xxxx~~ being busy at the time K.C. went to see the children. To her great shock on entering the little boys room she saw him playing with the <sup>empty</sup> ~~xxxx~~ box in which the gold had been kept. The realization that Mr. H. did something with the gold was such a shock that K.C. left the apt. immediately without seeing nor speaking to anyone about it. K.C. was so hurt at the misuse of trust of Mr. H. that she could not speak about it to anyone. ( <sup>Can</sup> ~~Does~~ this silence be interpreted that I realized that Mr. H. had used this money considering it a loan and not a trust or am I just a fool????) We must not loose track that the basis of all our relationship was purely idealistic and therefore <sup>we</sup> had implicit trust in each other. ~~It~~ No receipts nor vouchers were ever exchanged between us)

(K.C. heard later through a friend that 10,000 in gold was taken to Mr. Rick. by Mr. H.) K.C. did not speak about this matter to Mr. H. until early in 1934 when he told her that for a long time he has felt that she is hilding somrthing against him .He said that "as we all are such close coworkers, we cannot leave a misunderstanding stand between us. In order to continue together in work we should speak openly about everything to each other" (Note many references to this effect in his diaries)

K.C. then told him how crushed she was by his action in using her gold which she has left in trust with him, by taking it to Rick. without ever asking her permission to do so, when he knew that this gold was entrusted to him only for the personal needs of her family in a great emergency. (K.C. knew that it only could be her gold which he took to Rick. since he repeatedly told her during entire year of 1931 that all his resourses were completely exhausted. During that year K.C. gave large sums to Mrs H. for their perschal living expenses) Knowing that the gold was gone, K.C. never asked Mr. H. to return it to her, even realizing the new Government ruling)

Mr. H. seemed mildly surprized that the matter of gold was K.C.s grievance against him. He said that it was a misunderstanding on his part as he thought that this money was a loan to him. He asked her if she had anything more against him, but K.C. wanted to finish this unpleasant to her conversation and replied tah she could think of nothing more at the time. He then told her that he was going to prepare a statement of all the money loaned b by K.C. to him.

(Such a statement was requested by K.C. several times, <sup>before</sup> but was never received.)

Mr. H. purposely left the impression with K.C. that the gold was accepted by Rick. as he avoided giving any explanation.

Only in the summer of 1935 did K.C. by chance learn that that gold was not accepted by Rick. and that Mr. H. put it into a vault in a bank near Rick. s office in the name of Mrs.H. Mentionings of this gold "as a loan to Mr. H. by a friend" are to be found in his diaries. There are also witnesses and testimonies to these facts.

12/20/34 Check for 5,000 (cashier's check) to Arthur H. Waterman was delivered on that date personally by Miss Oliver to Mr. L. North. Check signed by National City Bank, Grammery Branch, as ordered by K.C.C.

About 2 days <sup>to this date</sup> prior, Miss Grant phoned Mrs. K.C. telling her about the grave situation arisen just on the eve of reorganization and begged her to help, stating that approx. 16,000 are needed at once and asking how much she could give. She transmitted to K.C. that Mr. North assured her that this loan would be repaid absolutely within 2 months, or most, as it was guaranteed by the Harbor and Dock Comm. K.C. got in touch then with L.H. and told him that it was for her impossible to give that sum and asked him what is the very least amount which would be needed. L.H. did not answer at once but said he will try again and see what he can do. He phoned later K.C. telling her that the most remarkable good luck had befallen him, as Mr. Waterman agreed to accept 5,000. K.C. then agreed to give the above mentioned sum, as Mr. N. also promised personally that in no way would this money be held up, as it was absolutely guaranteed by both Committees and would be returned to her in not later than 2 months. K.C.

Specifically stated to L.H. that this was the only ~~condition~~ <sup>condition</sup> under which it could be loaned. ~~He asked that she sent him as quickly as possible cashier's check, which was done~~

No receipt nor any acknowledgement of any sort was send to her by L.H., nor did he ever see her nor tried to get in touch with her since the telephone call, although he was most cordial grateful and thanked her profusely, giving his word that the loan was guaranteed and she had nothing to fear. Miss Later K.C. several times approached Grant and Mrs. North as to when she will get back his loan, but was told that there was a delay, because of the Bondhold. Comm.

Sometime in May Mr. L.H. phoned K.C. asking her to come to her apartment. She then told her that she had bad news for her, namely that the Bondholders Com. has double crossed Mr. L.H. in refusing to recognize or assume <sup>this</sup> obligation of 5000 Waterm loan to K.C. Mrs. H. further stated that Mr. H. had written a letter to the Bondholders asking them to take over his loan and they never replied. Mrs. H. said "it seems there is no way to get his money back except that Mr.
H. sues the Bondh. Com. But I have also a little good news. The Bondholders are paying pro rata payments on the loans made to their Committee and I suggest that you write the following letter to them" (copy attached) K.C. attended to it that very same day

Mr and Mrs. Lichmann and Miss Grant were fully informed about it all at the Trustees meetings and were also told by Mr. H. that this loan was to be repaid to K.C. within 3 weeks to 2 months and that his money was absolutely safe between us again!" To this R. C. replied: — as long as you want to know, I will tell you.

 In the very beginning of Receivership I was at your apt. and saw Flav. playing with empty box, which held my 10,000 in gold given by me to you in trust for my family. Later I heard from some one that this gold was brought by you to Picnab.
 Now could you use this gold given to you in trust, without even <sup>asking</sup> telling me about it before or even afterwards? It hurt me so deeply, that I could not bring myself to speak to you about it nor to anyone else!!
 Mr H. seemed mildly surprized and replied that he was sorry as it was a misunderstanding on his part, as he took for granted that this money was a loan to him. (?) Conversation was quickly changed by his saying that he was going to prepare a complete statement of all the money loaned by R. C.
 R. C. immediately left.

---

Mr & Mrs. L and Miss Grant knew prior to Mr. H's going to Picnabee that he had no money whatsoever (and that he was taking 10,000 in gold given to him by R. C.?)

Mr. L. carried his gold after he visit to Picquet, when she latter refused to accept it, to a vault in a Bank. where the Trustees went with Mr. H. Mr. N. took a vault there in the name of Mrs. H. in presence of the Trustees.

After the turn of face which was openly needed by Mr and Mrs. N. towards other Trustees, K. C. told about the breach of trust done by Mr. N. towards her.
Trustees were horrified about it, since Mr and Mrs. H. have given them quite a different impression about his matter.
Trustees stated to K. C. that Pick. were accepted this gold and that it <sup>was</sup> deposited in a vault in a downtown bank in the name of Mrs. H.

During Summer 1932 <sup>Mr. H.</sup> Mr. H. Sforce often in presence of K. C. and J. F. about advisability of putting away some gold as inflation loomed imminent. Thereupon K. C. consulted him as to whether he could help her to exchange a certain sum into gold. He assured her that it would be very easy to accomplish.
 Later he procured for K. C. 10,000 in gold. K. C. brought to his apartment (?) a decorative tin box so that this sum could be ~~put there~~ <sup>kept in this tin box about this matter</sup> ~~kept~~ <sup>kept</sup> this money was to be kept as a special trust for her husband and son, in a case an emergency would arise and she would need it for them. She requested him to keep this box with gold on the 29th floor, ~~in a room~~ <sup>where</sup> she knew there was a special steel cabinet where most important things were kept by the Trustees, who were the only ones to have keys to this room. He promised to do so and she left the box with gold with him, as she trusted him implicitly.
 Beginning of April K. C. as usual went to the apartment of Mr. H. to visit them and see the children. She went to Flavius's (little boy's) room as Mrs. H. was busy, to see the child. To her great shock she saw that Flavius was playing with the very same tin box, she recognized to be the one in which was kept her gold. The box was empty. The shock was so great at the realization that Mr. H. had broken his solemn promise to keep his gold in trust for her that K. C. could not bring herself to talk about it to Mr. or Mrs. H. or Miss Fitchie. At that time K. C. was not aware as to what Mr. H. has done with his gold. She could not bring herself to question him, as she could not believe that his money was used for any purpose of which she would not be informed by H. and could not also conceive that such a breach of trust was done by a president of a widely known Institution, in which she was greatly interested for many years.

(K. C. heard through a friend around that time that 10,000 in gold was taken by Mr. H. to Niueb—)

~~K. C. overheard a conversation~~

Early in 1934 Mr. H. spoke to K. C. that for a long time he has felt that she has held something against him and "why not ~~to~~ make a clean slate of things so that there could be no misunderstanding
," he said as it was guaranteed by both <sup>Bowyer</sup> Committees. 2 1811/14

Miss Grant who offered to approach Mrs. K.C. for that loan originally stated at the Trustees meeting that K.C. told her that she could loan his money under great difficulty and only on condition, that it be returned within promised time.
The three above mentioned Trustees can give affidavits to this effect.

At the Trustees meeting when Mr. H. informed the Trustees about the dire need of procuring money to pay off Waterman who threatened to bid at the sale of <sup>the</sup> building, Miss Grant volunteered to approach K.C. for a loan. Mrs. H. then exclaimed that as they were so driven, there was no other way but to ask K.C. She was very much opposed to it and she stated that K.C. would be the last person on earth to whom she would go for a loan.

At a Trustees meeting shortly before Mr. H. and Miss R.Z.'s trip to Europe, for which they had to procure money, Mrs. Z. and Miss G. asked as to when will the loan be returned to K.C. Mr. H. stated that there was an unexpected delay, which could not be helped and the money will be paid later to her. Mrs. L. then asked him to inform about it K. C. which he promised to do. This was the last mentioning of the loan.

12/20/34 Check for $5000.00 (Cashiers Check) to Arthur H Waterman was delivered on that date personally by Miss Miner to Mr. H. Check signed by National City Bank Gramercy Park Branch, as ordered by K.S.C. About two days prior to this date Miss Grant phoned K.C. telling her about the grave situation that had arisen just on the eve of the buying back the building, and begged her to help. Stating thatt approximately $16.000.00 was needed at once and asked her how much ~~XXXXXXXX~~ of thus sum she could loan. Miss G. transmitted to K.C. Mr. H's assurance thatt the loan would be (absolutely) repaid within two monthsat the most, as this loan would be guaranteed by the Hartman Rickabie committee. K.C. ~~gwxix~~ then spoke to Mr. H. over the phone and told him that it was not possible for her to loan the entire sum and asked what would be the least amount which would be needed. L.H. said that he would again confere with Mr. Waterman and let <sup>her</sup> ~~me~~ know. He phoned later saying that finally after much persuasion Mr. W. had accepted $5000.00 . Mr. H. stated that it was a far better deal than he could have ever expected to make. ( Leaving K.C. with the impression that the whole Waterman <sup>affair</sup> ~~loan~~ had been settled for this5000 dollars. ) K.C. then asked him how soon he needed this loan to which he answered"immediately". As he impressed K.C. with great haste in the entire matter K.C. immediately arranged to have a Cashiers check delivered to him that day by Miss Miner. During the above mentioned telephone conversation Mr. H. assured K.C. again that in no way would this money be held up ax it was absolutely guaranteed by both committees, and would be returned to her not later than two months. K.C. specifically stated to Mr. H. that this was the only condition under which this sum could be loaned. No receipt nor acknowledgement of any kind was sent to her by Mr. H. nor did he ever see or try to get in touch with her since the receipt of the $5000.00 . loan. Although he was most cordial and grateful and thanked her profusively giving his word again and again that the loan would be returned in two months.

Later K.C. several times approached Miss G. and Mrs. H. as to when this loan would be returned but was told that there was a delay because of the Bondh. Comm.

K.C. ~~although~~ tried to come in touch with Mr. H. but he could not be reached.

In May 1935 Mrs. H. phoned to K.C. to come to her apart. she then proceeded to tell her how the Bondh. Comm. had doublecrossed Mr. H. as they had refused to assume this obligation of the 5000 Waterman loan. Mrs. H. further stated that Mr. H. had written a letter to the Bondholders asking them to take over this loan and he was under the impression that they had replied (agreeing) but later he found out that they had not done so. Mrs H. continued saying that there is no way to get this money back except that Mr. H. sues the Bondholders Committees.

~~Thereafter, she dropped and~~ she continued with the following that she had a little good news that the Bondholders Committee are paying pro rata payments on the loans made to their committee and she suggested that ~~write~~ write the following letter to them.

----- K.C. attended to this that very same day.
