Dear Mr. Adisseshamaiah,

This is in haste to thank you for your letter of the 21st. of October enclosing the Padya Malika read by the poet on the 16th. at the Awards function at Mysore. It is indeed good of him to have sent such a nice copy of it, and to have translated it into English, I shall certainly request Dr. Roerich to send to him a letter, and this he will receive in a few days time. I thank you also for taking the trouble to have this done for us.

With our kind regards to you,

Yours sincerely,

D. R. Roerich
(Mme. D. R. Roerich.)

The Secretary was there when the phone came from Mysore, but when they asked for Dr. Roerich, she says she said that he was not in, and when she tried to get through the Trunk people kept saying they would connect again, but never did so, ofcourse, she could have put a call through herself to the University, but she did not know from where the call came! I told her never to say we are not there, and just to take the message.
