My dear Mrs. Bowry,

I had a letter from Mr. Bowry just before he left for Paris, as I am not able to read his handwriting clearly, will you be good enough to please send to me his full address? Mr. Bowry also has given to me a name of one officer in the Press Information Bureau Govt. of India, and I do not quite know if his name is D. R. Khanna, or if it is D. R. Kharana, if you happen to know, or if you could kindly find out from some friend of Mr. Bowry in the Press Information Bureau please send it to me, as Mr. Bowry has asked us to contact this gentleman after one week.

I am happy that you are all well, take good care of yourself and the children while he is away, and do get in touch with me if there is anything you wish for, as now you are alone,

With our warm regards and affectionate greetings to you and the children,

Yours very sincerely,

( Mme. DEVIKA RANI ROERICH. )
