Personal -
My dear J. C.,

How nice to have news of you after such a long time! Your letter made us both happy, and we are glad to know that now you feel much happier as the Managing Director of the group publications of Eves' Weekly. I personally think that the Newspaper business will be good for you, as you have worked and built it up in the Times, and you are so used to this type of work. Why do you not have your firm also buy up some papers here in the south? You should have a chain of such papers, and then it would be very interesting for you.

This year is the year that the 90th. birth anniversary of Prof. Roerich will be celebrated, in the USSR, they have done a fine Monograph on his work, and in the USA' and also in Paris, and London and other parts of the world, they will be celebrating this occasion. It would be very nice if some of your publications also published some article, and photographs on this occasion, if you are interested, and it is possible, to publish such subjects on Art and Artists, then let me know, and I will send to you some things for publication. So far, since you have left, I have not contacted anyone there in the Times, as somehow, it is like that. Kusumaker here is still devoted to you, and he misses you very much. I just bought Eves' Weekly to send to a friend abroad, strange that now you say that you are connected with it. We saw Frank in Delhi last time, he looked quite well, and likes it very much there. I wish we could meet, what is your prediction of the future here? Your ideas are realistic, and you are in a better position to know than most people. Here, there is a certain depression, why one does not exactly know, but it is here- may be the food situation, though we have more here than some other places. Do you look the same young man? Ofcourse, you may have become younger now- I would not be at all surprised!

Do write when you can. With our very warm greetings,

Yours sincerely,

Devi

My dear Mr. Jain,

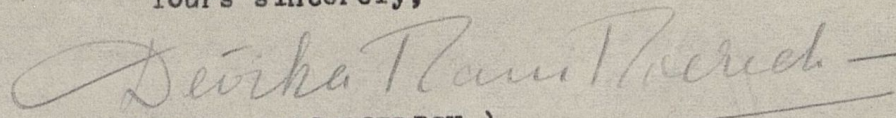

I am sending you today some data about the late Prof. Nicholas Roerich whose 90th. Birth Anniversary falls on the 9th. of October this year.

It would be nice if either this data could be published in full, or someone wrote about him from this data, taking excerpts from it. The Photograph is good for reproduction, and I am sure that EVE'S WEEKLY will do full justice to this great artist on this important occasion.

When you have finished with the photograph and the two typed copies, I shall be grateful if you would have them returned to me.

With our affectionate regards to you,

Yours sincerely,

(DEVIKA RANI ROERICH.)

P.S. I would like to buy 6. copies of the issue publishing the above matter, which please have sent to me at the above address.

My dear J. C.,

Thank you for your letter of the 2nd. November which I was very happy to receive. The 5. copies of "TREND", came also and the full page article on Prof. Nicholas Roerich we think came out very nicely, thank you very much. I also sent immediately by M. O., the V. P. P., charges for these copies, plus the postage.

I feel the better way of meeting together when we are in Bombay is that we phone each other, and then fix up sometime, so that we may be able to spend sometime with you. Is it not better that just us and you with your family meet instead of having a party? We have not met for such a long time, and it would be so nice just to have a chat, there is so much to talk about. Just at the moment we have not made a fixed programme, as it is a question of the rooms, they can only give us rooms for one week, as they are booked for the Congress starts soon, so we may first go to Delhi, and from there return through Bombay. But I will definitely let you know, as we both wish so much to meet you after such a long time. Gulshan will tell you all our news, she was with us yesterday here, and we were happy to see her.

With love from us both,

Yours sincerely,
