29th July 1971.

Dear Mr. Leifer,

How very good of you to have sent us your book "India and the Germans" which we shall read with great interest and ultimately keep in our Library at Kulu - Thank you also for your letter of March 9th 1971.

We only returned end of June, and again left for Bombay that is why I was unable to write you earlier - while we are away no heavy books etc. are sent us, as we travel a great deal in the mountains. I will send you my husbands book "The Art of Kulu" which I feel sure will be of interest to you.

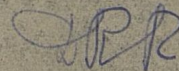

My husband thanks you for your good wishes to him on the occasion of the Medal of Honour for "Art and Humanism" - it was a very fine tribute to his Art and work, and the function was really nice.

Since returning I have been very busy, but I shall try to send you a short note about my work and contact with the Film world of Germany as desired by you for your book "Bombay and the German-speaking World" after I hear from you.

Please let me know if this letter reaches you so I may know where you are, as you mention you will be away "and may not come back".

With our kind regards and best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

(DEVIKA RANI ROERICH)
