Dear Shri Ramdev,

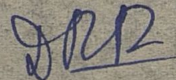

You will probably have received by now my husband's tribute to Dr. M.S. Randhawa for the presentation volume " Abhinandan Granth " which you shall be publishing soon. I am sure that this tribute from my husband will be placed at the beginning of this volume or just after the introduction as it is not only a fine tribute to Dr. Randhawa, but it is a tribute from a man who understands well the significant contributions that Dr. Randhawa has made in all the various subjects which have interested him and which continue to interest him.

Both of us have a high regard for Dr. M.S. Randhawa and we wish him many, many more years of successful creative work.

We would like to have two copies of the publication when it is published.

With my kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Mme. DEVIKA RANI ROERICH)
