My dear Shaun,

Much love for your letter of 14th Jan. and all your news.

At last the Artichokes! So I wired you and do hope they reach in good condition.

I myself would love to go to Khatmandu and only the other day was discussing it with Svetoslav - it is so refreshing to go to places which are still unspoilt.

Always remember that you will be most welcome to stay in Kulu any time you wish, you only have to let us know a little in advance
but the best time is October to my mind.

With lots of love from both of us,

Yours affectionately,

P.S.

If you do not need Svetoslav's transparencies for reproduction it would be nice to have them back and to see how they have come out.
We have received the transparencies of those paintings which were published in the Illustrated.
