Dear Sir,

This is to bring to your notice that though we are paying for a copy of the Illustrated Weekly of India to foreign land, so that my brother-in-law Dr. George Roerich is sent the issues for one year, in his letter to us of 5th March he has up to date only received one issue of 4th January and nothing more.

It is not that publications from here do not reach him because he receives other publications I therefore request you to kindly check and let us know why the back number issues (i.e. 9 upto date) have not reached him which is rather sad because we are not only paying for it but it is eagerly looked forward to by my brother-in-law whose address is as follows which has already been given to you and which you must have because one issue reached him of 4-1-1959.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

JRR
