Dear Mrs Roerich,

I just arrived yesterday with a friend and am so glad to hear you are still here. I had a letter from Sham Mandy in Bombay saying I would miss you in Kalimpong.
I should so like to see you and wonder when would be the best time. Or would you and your husband come and have a meal with us? Mrs Morgan has just hung up and asked me to do tomorrow.
It was she who told me you were still here and said that if I wrote you a note and mentioned that she would be delighted if you would have tea with her to-morrow also, I should be less likely to disturb you when you were busy - I do hope you can come.

Yours Sincerely,
Vina Lindsey

Dear Dinka,

How sweet of you it was to remember the book which I shall certainly guard with my life and return as soon as I have finished it. I can't wait to begin it & find out all the plans like "the manure room" you spoke of!

It was so nice to see you this morning and I am so sorry I couldn't have seen more of you. However — another time perhaps. Please don't forget to look us up if ever you come to "The Black Hole".

We should so enjoy seeing you both - All the very best to you and your husband -

Yours affly,
Vina.
