Dear Madam,

I, whom you know very ^{well} since when I was 21 years who served under your firm (B.T.) as cook, have been unemployed for nearly two years and haven't seen any happiness since your departure.

I am come for your help. My position is in a very bad state which I cannot state here. At the same time I have to look back on my family who are also in the same state. And since I cannot manage to support, I have to spend tears ~~in~~ thinking over my sad days.

You very well know that the B.T's Canteen have turn my happy days into poverty.

And I have come to you only for one and most favour to take from you which is surely possible with you. And that is I ask you humbly to look for a job which will be ~~an~~ forgetful favour to me in my life.

Hoping and waiting ~~for~~ your kind ~~control~~ ~~reply~~ reply in earnest.

Yours obedient,
Lawrence Gomes.
