

Bangalore,
28th April, 1958

Dear Madam,

Enclosed is the bill from Vincent Garage Workshop and the servicing bill which were given to me by Mr. Wells which he explained as follows:-

- | | | | |
|----|---|---|-----------------|
| 1. | { | The Vincent Garage Bill (white form) | |
| | { | is for the total cost of | |
| | { | Repairs, - | = Rs. 224 - 65 |
| | { | i.e. cost of parts Rs. 91 - 25 | |
| | { | cost of labour | |
| | { | (details in pink form) | 96 - 50 |
| | { | & cost of 6 plugs - | 36 - 90 |
| | { | Total = | 224 - 65 |
| 2. | { | Bill for servicing (red form) | Rs. 25 - 63 |
| | | Total for repairs & servicing) = | 250 28 |

The above bills 1 & 2 Mr. Wells says are two separate bills to be paid separately, as they are from 2 different firms.

Dr. Roerich's letter to Mr. Nayar enclosed in Mrs. Chaudhuri's letter reached here on Friday 25th April - Mr. Nayar was out of station then and only came today morning (Monday) and Mrs. Chaudhuri handed Dr. Roerich's letter to Mr. Nayar. Mr. Legge came here this morning and said he will send the car to take Mr. Nayar to the Estate on the 3rd May to pay the staff.

I received Dr. Roerich's separate instructions to me to hand the letter to Mr. Nayar - so we wrote to him at his house to come here on Monday morning the 28th April and Mrs. Chaudhuri handed the letter to him and he said he would do the needful.

Hoping you are well - with kind regards,

I remain, Madam,
Yours sincerely,
Daisy

Bangalore,

Dear Madam,

I thank you for your letter of 2nd May and am very happy that you will be arriving here on the 9th at 4 P.M.

Yes, I shall only forward the Income-tax or Govt. letters of Dr. Roerich's in a Registered cover to him.

Regarding the operation, I will see Dr. Gnaneshwaran tomorrow and will take his advice.

Mrs. Chaudhuri has asked me to inform you that she has received Dr. Roerich's and your letters and is attending to all the instructions contained in them. She says she is very busy now turning out all the boxes and cleaning and tidying them up, hence she is not able to write now but will do so tomorrow. Mrs. Chaudhuri says she has handed over to Mr. Nayar and Mr. Legge their letters enclosed in Dr. Roerich's letter and they are attending to all the instructions, and Mr. Nayar said he would be writing to Dr. Roerich and she hopes he has done so.

With very kind regards and eagerly looking forward to seeing you,

I remain, Madam,
Yours sincerely,

Daisy
