My dear Dennis Rami

It is disgraceful of me to have taken so long writing to tell you how really very much I enjoyed & I enjoyed our beautiful evening with you - It was a joy

& most especially seeing some of your husband's paintings & sketches. I was v much impressed this time. Though it sounds terribly impertu-ent to say so & please forgive me. but I thought his work had... I can't express it properly
 - but had expanded a great deal & gained strength & even a greater sensitivity.
 Thank you so much for asking us I was only sad that we had so stupidly to borrow your car both ways which was such a shame after being there with our own for five weeks!

I know Shanta loved coming too. She is a very touchy soul though no one gifted as she is, is ever really touchy - she lives in such great Beauty. How very very lucky all you artists are le

You have splendid enjoyed his "holidays" in spite of every thing. He is supposed to go slow "resta" but but fear with his temperament - work having piled up so much in his absence it is very difficult & I fear he is doing too much - With love from us all again thank you Both for our wonderful evening -
Lerosz
