Personal

My dear Devika Raniji,

Many thanks for your letters of September 16 & 17. These were awaiting my return from a 10-day tour of Gujarat which took me to Somnath, Dwarka and Porbunder, among other places.

I am afraid there is some misunderstanding about the photographs. I told Vivek that I would like to have 10 copies of Prof. Roerich's photograph with the late Prime Minister Nehru. Vivek's article has been offered to various newspapers along with a copy of Prof. Roerich's photograph with Mr. Nehru.

I shall, therefore, be grateful if you could kindly send me 10 copies of the photograph immediately. Meanwhile, I shall ask our various subscribers if they would be interested in any photograph of Prof. Roerich's paintings. Perhaps, we can give the editor a choice.

I shall be glad to receive a copy of the Professor's broadcast on his father as also the promised news items.

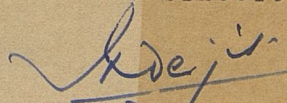

I do hope that Vivek's article will get wide publicity. I shall try to secure for you at least 3 copies each of the newspapers carrying it.

The article has already been sent to 10 English newspapers all over the country and to an equal number of language papers. The Tribune, Ambala, has already written to us accepting the article.

When do I see you? It seems ages since we met and had a chat.

Warm regards to you and Professor Roerich.

Yours sincerely,

(Inderjit)

Madame Devika Rani Roerich,
BANGALORE.

Dear Devika Raniji,

Many thanks for your letter of September 25, as also for the separate cover containing ten photographs of Prof: Roerich with the late Mr. Nehru. I am also in receipt of the news item and arranging to push it across in our service on Monday.

It is always a pleasure to hear from you. You have certainly taught yourself some good typing. Please do not unnecessarily bother about typing mistakes so long as you write!

I do hope that we will get wide publicity for Vivek's article. Unfortunately not many newspaper editors in the various States have much knowledge or interest in the world of art.

We all look forward to your next visit and send you our best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Inder Jit
