MAIDEN'S HOTEL
DELHI

21st Feb 52.

Dear Mrs. Roerich,

I thank you for your letter received a few days ago.

It was a pleasure to learn that you had a comfortable stay at the Grand Hotel Calcutta. Rai Bhadur showed me the telegramme which you sent him from Calcutta.

I gave the big basket to my wife and the smaller one to the House Keeper. They both asked me to thank you. The ~~Swiss~~ House keepers name is Mrs. M. Ainzolini.

All the mail which ever is received is being forwarded to you at Kalimpong.

Delhi is getting hotter now and it seems as if the summer will come early this time. Myself, my wife and two of her sisters have a programme to visit Kulu during this summer for about a month. If ~~our~~ programme tallies with that of yours then we will have the pleasure to pay you a visit.

With kind regards from both of us to yourself and Mr. Roerich.

Yours sincerely,

P.S. Lamba

10th March 53.

Dear Mrs. Roerich,

Received your letter yesterday afternoon. Herebelow is the required information.

Mrs. C. B. Rao (Balkrishna Rao) -- 1, Mina Bagh, King Edward Road, New Delhi.

Mr. K. Kirpālani, 33/35 Patudi House.
Pt. Secretary to the Minister of Education
Govt of India. Telephone. Office. 43333,
Res. 43865.

M/S B. Lila Ram are sorry for the delay.
They have promised to despatch the pants in a day or two.

Delhi is very crowded these days with all the delegates to the Railway Centenary Conference and the Exhibition. It is getting quite hot too.

With best wishes and regards from both of us.

Yours Sincerely,

(P. S. Lamba)

MAIDEN'S HOTEL

26th March

Dear Mrs Roenich,

Immediately on receipt of your letter I contacted Karstemi Emporium. They say that the particular print of your sari could only be done in summer months and not in cold weather. They have promised to get it done in about three weeks time. I will keep on reminding them every now and then.

Delhi is getting warmer now. The temperature goes up to 99°/100°. I can presume that it must be very pleasant up there in Kalimpong and Mr. Roenich would be busy in his work.

I do expect to be in Delhi in the month of May unless I do not take my annual leave.

With kind regards to you and Mrs. Rerick from both of us

Yours sincerely
A. Rerick

Dear Mrs. Roerich,

Received your letter this morning. I rang up Kashmir Art Emporium to enquire of the sari. They still have not got it ready. The same old excuse was put forward by the Manager that the print can only be done in hot weather. However I asked him to hurry up with the job. He has promised to send a reminder to his factory in Srinagar. I have also instructed him to keep the sari when ready as you are expected to be in Delhi in the beginning of May.

Oh yes, it will be a pleasure and an honour to keep you at the Maiden's. The airconditioned suite will be kept available. Please do let me know the date of arrival well in advance as we are generally hard pressed for the airconditioned rooms during summer especially in May and June when it is inbarebly hot.

Best regards from both of us for yourself and Mr. Roerich.

Yours Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Roerich,

I was surprised to learn from your letter to Mr. De Cicco that you did not receive my telegramme. I do hope that you have the confirmation with you by now. I got only one telegrame and immediately on its receipt the reply was sent. Your letter also reached me yesterday only.

The accomodation is in order. A nice airconditioned suite is reserved. I hope to meet you at the station on 19th evening.

Looking forward to meet you in the meantime my kindest regards for your self and Mr. Roerich.

Yours Sincerely,
