INDIA HOUSE,

ALDWYCH,

LONDON, W.C.2.

August 27, 1974

My dear Devika Rani,

Mr Archer came here this morning and brought both your typed and your hand-written letters. It was a very pleasant surprise to hear from you.

I shall willingly play my part in the centenary celebrations of your father-in-law, and pay my tribute to this great sage.

I was very pleased to learn from Mr Archer that Svetoslav and you might be here in October. It will be wonderful to see you again; it has been a long time since we last met. Do drop us a line in advance of your coming.

With all good wishes from both of us and hoping to see you soon,

Yours affectionately,

Bijja
