Dear Madam

I was to write a letter to you before your departure to Dehli. But neither I could dare to write nor I could dare to see you.

I have already separated from my family. ~~and~~ I shall be highly obliged if you will kindly keep me again in your Estate at Bangalore. But the salary which you were paying me was quite insufficient. Because the current position is this that I have to maintain my own family here in Bombay. I hope you will consider my case and will do the needful. I am not expecting more but ~~I can at least~~ ^{At least} I will be able to maintain my family here in Bombay.

Waiting for your favorable reply

Excuse for trouble

yours obediently

Ramchandra
